

Racism, Diversity and You AN EQUALITY TRAINING WORKSHOP

Race in the Workplace

12th November, 2008, 9-11.30am

The Radisson SAS Hotel, Athlone

TRAINER: Mary Carroll

Booking , please call : 090 6498838 or Email :
athcci@iol.ie

This workshop is being provided FREE for businesses through the Athlone Promoting Workplace Equality project

Workshop Content

The training tackles the underlying attitudes that lead to racism in the workplace. The workshop will show how race can effect your business and its bottom line.

Proposed Programme Content

- Diversity
- What my culture means to me?
- Intercultural communication barriers
- Developing cultural skills
- Terminology – language matters
- Discrimination

TRAINER – MARY CARROLL BSc; MSc; Diploma in Legal Studies; Cert in Marketing, Advertising and PR

Mary is a trainer and facilitator who worked as an Equality Officer with both the IFA and Concern over the past 5 years. She is now working freelance as a specialist in Inter-cultural and Diversity challenges of Ireland today. She scripted and produced a Diversity/Intercultural DVD in conjunction with Carlow-Kilkenny Skillnet and Carlow Equal – to match FETAC Level 1 qualification 'Living and working in a Diverse Ireland'. Mary is also an author and radio presenter. She produces and presents a weekly 'Arts' show on Midlands 103 radio. She is the author of 'Women Drive Tractors Too' – 18 biographical, true life stories of Irish Women in Agriculture.

Next Workshop – Dates for your Diary 10th December 2008, 9am – 11am

Religious Expression – the removal of overt religious attire and symbols from the workplace -